• Native Hawaiian Scholarship 'Aha (Fairs) 2016-2017, Mon, Oct. 24, 6pm at UH Maui College Pilina Bldg.'s Multipurpose Room:

The highly popular Native Hawaiian Scholarship 'Aha (Fairs) connect Native Hawaiian students with financial aid to help them pay for college & technical programs. The fairs help high school & college students, parents, teachers, counselors, & anyone interested in finding out more about scholarships & financial aid, eligibility & applications. This is a great opportunity for students & their families to meet & directly interact with agencies that provide scholarships. Don't miss this. They'll be having a drawing also for a $500 Scholarship. (see below)

- ★ Register to Win a $500 Scholarship in Drawing (applied to the school of your choice) if being offered for those who attend. To be eligible for the $500, you must do the following:
 - Register HERE
 - Submit an evaluation at the end of the event.

Please let Mrs. Gomer know if you have any questions.

● Junior Prom Court Nominations, Th, Oct. 27:

Junior Prom Nominations will be held on Th, Oct. 27 during Advisory. In order for someone to be on Prom court they must be nominated by three different advisories. Please also be aware, there will be a mandatory nominee meeting on Th, Nov. 3. Good luck to all!

● PE/Health & Peer Education Classes to Sponsor an Anti Bullying Rally, Wed, Oct. 26, from 7-7:45am at Haleakala Hwy Gate:

Our rally is getting lots of support. Besides Kamehameha, Kekaulike & some Seabury students, MEO, MFSS, MPD, MFD, Dept. of Health, & Kekaulike PE/Health & Peer Ed students, Maui News, our sport steam & fellow staffers are planning on attending this sign waving.

Parents & community organizations are welcome to join in. Interested students must have permissions formed signed by their parents & returned to Mr. Lu'uwai in order to participate. Forms are available from Mr. Lu'uwai in K202 during non-instructional times. Questions? See Mr. Lu'uwai.

● Report Cards & Parent Newsletters will be mailed out Wed, Oct. 26. If your mailing address &/or contact phone number has changed, please inform our office by calling (808) 727-3500 as soon as possible.. Thank you!

"Go Alice Go" Drama

October 28, 29 & November 4, 5, 6
in Kekaulike Cafetorium

Fridays & Saturdays @7pm & Sunday matinee @3pm
Students $6 / Adults: $8

This powerful play explores the mind & experience of a depressed high school girl who inadvertently gets into drugs. The lesson inherent in this play is so effective because it is not the result of a lecture but, rather, a sharply visualized tragedy that happens to a member of the peer group. "A raindrop just splashed on my forehead," Alice wrote in her diary, "and it was like a tear from heaven. Am I really alone? Is it possible that even God is crying for me?"

Alice is a fairly typical girl from an average family with parents who love her. What makes Alice different is that she's tricked into trying drugs & then becomes addicted. She fights against her addiction & depression, but by the time she has learned the answers, it's already too late.

(Tickets available at the door which opens @6:30pm)

 Includes explicit content that may not be appropriate for children 12 and under
